Market update

The S&P/ASX 200 Accumulation Index increased 3.3% in June, to finish the financial year up 13.0%. The best performing sectors for the month included energy, up 7.8%, consumer staples, up 6.2%, utilities, up 6.0% and financials, up 4.1% while telecommunications dragged on the index, underperforming by 5.8%.

Globally, the escalating prospect of trade conflicts between the US and China weighed heavily on sentiment. US President Donald Trump imposed steel and aluminium tariffs on Europe, Canada and Mexico before announcing a US$34 billion list of Chinese goods subject to tariffs, prompting a plan by Chinese authorities to announce equal tariff rates on the same value of goods. The US Federal Reserve lifted interest rates by 0.25 percentage points and signalled that two more increases are likely in 2018 as policymakers gave a bullish assessment of the US economy citing accelerating growth and rapid job creation.

Portfolio update

The WAM Leaders investment portfolio rose 2.6% in June. We increased our exposure to the banks during the month as market valuations became supportive. With the Bank of Queensland, AMP and Suncorp recently repricing to offset additional costs, we believe this current dynamic has the potential to offset some of the negative headwinds for the sector in the short term. Positive contributors to the portfolio included Mayne Pharma Group (ASX: MYX), up 12.3%, Corporate Travel Management (ASX: CTD), up 10.9%, Caltex (ASX: CTX), up 10.6%, APN Outdoor (ASX: APO), up 10.4%, and Whitehaven Coal (ASX: WHC), up 9.9%.

Defending the current dividend imputation system

The Federal Opposition has proposed changes to the current dividend imputation system that would impact self-funded retirees, older workers and low income earners. Wilson Asset Management firmly opposes these changes and is calling on the Commonwealth Government and Federal Opposition to maintain the status quo. It is vital to encourage your family and friends to sign our petition to maintain the momentum. Sign the petition here. We are currently consulting with shareholders and industry participants and we will submit the petition and policy paper that will explain the importance of maintaining the current dividend imputation system.
